

Shane Lewis is widely considered one of motorsports leading race and development drivers. The Jupiter, Fla.-resident's impressive resume includes race victories in championships throughout the world! Included are prestigious races won in IMSA, Trans Am, European Le Mans Series, World Challenge, Continental Challenge, VLN and the World 24hr Series.

Always a fan favorite, Shane has competed in an impressive 40 twenty-four hour races including three 24 Hours of Le Mans, nineteen 24 Hours of Daytona, five 24 Hours of Nürburgring and three 24 Hours of Dubai. He has raced in eight 12 Hours of Sebring, seven Petit Le Mans, won two 6 hours of Nürburgring.

Major endurance wins include victories in the 24 hours of Nurburgring, the 24 hours of Dubai, the 24 hours of Daytona and the 12 Hours of MagyCours, France.

When not competing, Shane is one of the most sought-after test drivers and driving coaches in the business. His skills are also often in demand for everything from a NASCAR Sprint Cup stock car to open wheel cars. He is a past recipient of the Professional Sports Car Racing's Rising Star Award, IMSA Driver of the Year and is a proud inductee into the RRDC.
